R. Hanvey, representing the townships, stated that all budgets are in compliance and all are solvent.

Cindy Catanach, CFO Livingston County, expounded on the county budget. Revenue is up with the U.S. Marshalls and she foresees an increase in healthcare costs, inmate care and public defender costs. The budget includes a 2% COLA with step increases. The county is expecting a balanced budget.

T. Zigman, representing LESA, stated the same for ISD. Property tax and health care costs are increasing along with a nominal wage increase. She also noted there will be a balanced budget and is requesting the .10 millage allocation again this year.
