Resolution Authorizing the Reorganization of the Sheriff’s Office to Move one FTE Deputy from the Jail Services Division to the Field Services Division - Sheriff

WHEREAS, there are currently 57 FTE Deputies assigned to the Jail Services Division and 34 FTE Deputies assigned to the Field Services Division; and

WHEREAS, the Livingston County Sheriff’s Office is requesting to move one Jail Services Deputy FTE and reassign the Deputy position to the Field Services Division. This will change the total number of deputies assigned to the Field Services Division to 35 and the total number of deputies assigned to the Jail Services Division to 56. This will not change the total number of FTE Deputy positions approved by the Board of Commissioners; and

WHEREAS, the Deputy position will be assigned to our Community Outreach Unit acting as Liason to LESA. This positon receives partial reimbursement from LESA in the amount of $50,000 dollars per year; and

WHEREAS, the difference in annual wages between a FTE Deputy assigned to the Field Services Division and a FTE Deputy assigned to the Jail Services Division is $4,616. The Livingston County Sheriff’s Office will account for this difference during the normal Budget planning cycle.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Livingston County Board of Commissioners hereby authorizes the reorganization of the Livingston County Sheriffs’ Office to allow for a FTE Deputy from the Jail Services Division to be reassigned to the Field Services Division as shown below.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Livingston County Board of Commissioners authorize any necessary budget amendments to effectuate the above.
