Dear Dave Feldpausch,

Thank you for your inquiry into any units we may have. Both Mark and I have been ordering as many units as we can, in hopes that we would have trucks in the event of emergencies. We have been getting inquiries from all over the country, but have committed to keeping these units at home, for our customers. We have built our business on keeping customers our customers. The only way we can do that is anticipate future needs. We do our best.

That said, I am happy to provide you our most recent demo, with no miles on it, at the pre 7% increase price.
